INFORMATION ABOUT INTERNATIONAL AIRPORTS ON MAPS OF WORLD

New Delhi, 7 February 2008: MapsofWorld.com launches a new section to provide location information and details of all International Airports across the world.

This new section on International Airports is further sub-divided into the following categories:

- List of Airports in Asia
- List of Airports in South America
- List of Airports in Africa
- List of Airports in Europe
- List of Airports in USA

While in some cases the International Airports in a country have been marked in the respective country map, in others the details have been provided as text content. The International Airports section in Maps of World comes in handy for all globetrotters around the world.
