

Arches National Park in Utah, USA

Arches National Park – a natural red rock wonderland

The Arches National Monument is a natural rock formation made of sandstone. It is one of the most famous rock formations in the park.

Animal

The park is home to a variety of animals, including bighorn sheep, mule deer, and pronghorn. At night, you can see the park's nocturnal animals, such as cottontails, badgers, and porcupines.

Activities

Visitors may enjoy a variety of activities, including hiking, biking, and horseback riding.

Hiking

Here is a list of some of the best hiking trails in the park:

Easy Trails

The Balanced Rock trail is a beautiful rock formation. The Broken Arch trail is a short and easy hike. The Courthouse Rock trail is a short and easy hike. Other easy trails include the Sandstone Arch and the Tower of Babel.

Moderate Trails

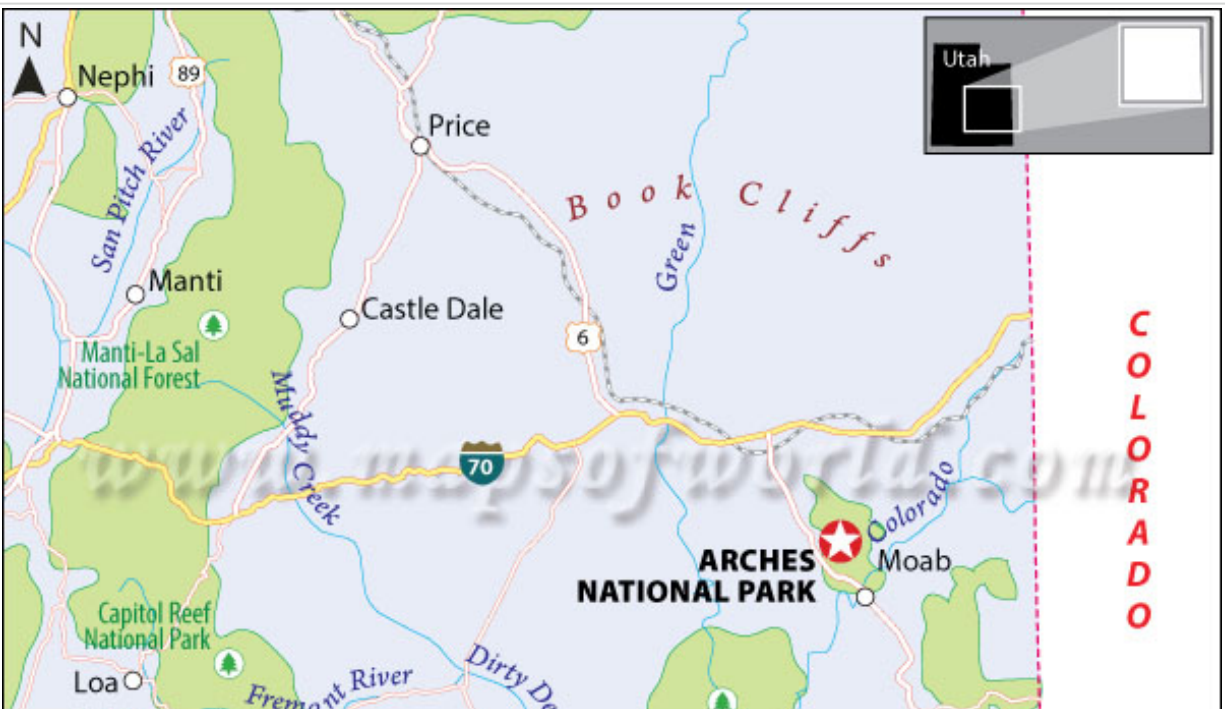

The Park Avenue trail is a moderate hike. The Tower of Babel trail is a moderate hike. The Tower of Babel trail is a moderate hike.

Long Trails

The Delicate Arch trail is a long hike. The Devils Garden trail is a long hike. The Double Arch trail is a long hike.

The Fiery Furnace is a maze-like structure built by narrow cut canyons. No specific trails are there in this area which has been damaged by frequent visits of tourists. Another interesting thing to see in the Arches National Park is the Petroglyphs made by Ute tribe. These are an evidence of the human habitation in this region since the last ice age.

Arches National Park Map

Arches National Park Facts

The Arches National Park was designated as a National Monument on April 12, 1929. The park is managed by the National Park Service. It covers an area of 76,679 acres. The park's highest elevation (5,653 feet) is at Elephant Butte.

Where is Arches National Park?

The Arches National Park is situated in eastern Utah. The park can be reached within 20 minutes from the Canyonlands Field (airport) in Moab.

Best Time To Visit Arches National Park

The best time to visit the Arches National Park is spring and fall season, because when daytime temperatures are generally between 60° and 80°F (16°-27°C), the nights are cool making the park a heaven for hikers. Moreover, the winds in the spring season are not dangerous.

Arches National Park Hours

The Arches National Park opens round the clock on all days. The visitor center opens from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. on all days except on December 25.

Arches National Park Tickets

Individual pass costs $10, while for vehicles the entry fee is $25. The tickets are valid for seven consecutive days. Nearby Attractions: Canyonlands Ballooning, Hell's Revenge, Canyonland National Park, Corona Arch, RedRock Astronomy, Dead Horse Point State Park, and Castle Valley.

2017 Fee Free Days

16 January : Martin Luther King Jr. Day
20 February : Presidents Day
15 - 16 April and 22 - 23 : Weekends of National Park
25 August : National Park Service Birthday
30 September : National Public Lands day
11 - 12 November : Veterans Day Weekend
Ref: <https://www.nps.gov/arch/planyourvisit/fees.htm>

mapsofworld.com provides Interesting Information about Tourist Destinations from across the world. Visit : <http://www.mapsofworld.com>