

SeaWorld Orlando in Florida

SeaWorld is a very popular theme park and marine-life zoo in Orlando, Florida. The park hosts many educational programs, shows, exhibitions and other fun experiences, making it immensely popular with families, teachers and students. This 200-acres marine life theme park, is filled with aquatic fun and thrilling adventures. This park is currently being operated and managed by the Sea World Parks and Entertainment, a subsidiary of the Blackstone Group.

The smashing success of the first SeaWorld Park prompted the founders to open another park at a different location; the SeaWorld Park at Ohio was opened in 1968, and was soon followed by the establishment of the SeaWorld, Orlando in the year 1973. Orlando was selected as an ideal location due to its pleasant climate almost all through the year. Also, with the opening of the Walt Disney parks, a large number of visitors were already visiting the city.

SeaWorld in Orlando, unlike other theme parks has a refreshing landscape, with no broken up themed islands in the park. The main landscaping feature of the park is its pathways with animal enclosures on either side. The main entrance to the park is decorated with lush tropical landscaping, which has a Florida-based theme, a huge artificial freshwater marina, and an iconic lighthouse based on a Shamu theme. The neighboring park, Discovery Cove, along with the SeaWorld, forms a greater entertainment area, which is an ideal destination for vacationers. SeaWorld, Orlando, offers many shows, exhibitions, rides, and park experiences. Live shows, animal exhibits, and the 3D computer animated films at the Theater Dome promise the visitors a great time. SeaWorld Park has a number of activities on offer such as thrill rides including Kraken-The Roller Coaster Ride, Shamu Express, and the Manta, swimming with the dolphins, and rides on water slides. Children love the motion-stimulated journey of the helicopter at the Wild Arctic Arena. There is also the famous Clydesdale Hamlet, where you can learn about the beer-making process. SeaWorld offers fun activities and entertainment for the entire family and for all age groups. SeaWorld has reconstructed the marine environment in an unfettered and beautiful way. It is the perfect blend of educational resources and fun and the ideal way to reconnect with nature.
