

Washington Monument in Washington, USA

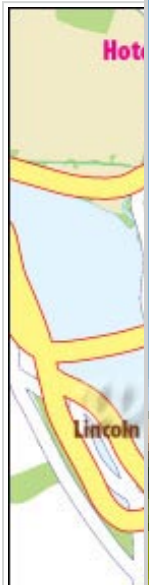

The Washir President of situated in f picturesque granite, and The plan for president. T Washington However, af Chief Justic The society competition a height of The Washin his van to th had in his v stand-off wi found in his Visitors to th natural disa erection of t

ne first is a marble, the tue of th, the ngton. n the ade with yer took hat he hour s were in as the

Washir

Washington Monument Map

Washington Monument Facts

The Washington Monument features an elevation of 555 feet, 5 1/8 inches (169.294 meters). The monument was constructed between 1848 and 1884. Total area covered by the monument is 106.01 acres (42.90 ha). The marble capstone weighs 3,300 pounds (1.5 t). The monument was opened to the general public on October 9, 1888.

Where is Washington Monument?

The Washington Monument is located at the National Mall in Washington D.C., the capital city of the United States. The National Mall is the most important part of the city, surrounded by important memorials.

Best Time To Visit Washington Monument

The best time to visit the Washington Monument and Washington D.C. is in September through November, when there is a lot of activity on the Hill, and spring, when the cherry blossoms bloom and the National Mall looks most beautiful.

Washington Monument Hours

The Washington Monument opens everyday except July 4 and December 25, at the following timings:

During summers: from 9:00 am to 10:00 pm

Rest of the year: 9:00 am to 5:00 pm

Washington Monument Tickets

Admission to the monument is free. The Washington Monument Lodge, located along 15th Street, distributes free tickets at 8:30 am.

More About Washington Monument

Nearby attractions: Lincoln Memorial, National World War II Memorial, Korean War Veterans Memorial, and Vietnam Veterans Memorial.

mapsofworld.com provides Interesting Information about Tourist Destinations from across the world. Visit : <http://www.mapsofworld.com>