

Florida, USA

History

The Spanish explorer Juan Ponce de León was the first European to discover the region in 1513.

Florida was the 27th state to enter the union on March 3, 1845.

Did You Know?

'The Sunshine State' has the longest coastline among 48 contiguous states in the US.

Everglades National Park, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, is the only place on earth where alligators and crocodiles co-exist.

Maritime Heritage Trail is mapsofworld.com provides Interesting Information about Tourist Destinations from across the world. Visit : <http://www.mapsofworld.com>