

Vatican City, Rome

History

Vatican was established as an independent state after the Lateran Treaty was signed on February 11, 1929.

In 1984, the Vatican City was designated as a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

The first version of St. Peter's Basilica was constructed in the 4th century AD. It was replaced by a new one in the 16th century.

mapsofworld.com provides Interesting Information about Tourist Destinations from across the world. Visit : <http://www.mapsofworld.com>